

Please don't allow K-LOVE to go off the air due to the proposed Low Power FM broadcast service. This would be extremely disappointing not only to me (I live in Colorado) but also to millions of listeners across the nation.

1. I listen to K-LOVE in Denver, CO every day on the way to work and on the way home from work. It always brightens my day and gives me encouragement through the inspirational music. I also enjoy the news updates.

2. If K-LOVE were no longer available in Denver, there wouldn't be any more decent stations to choose from. Because it is good, clean, decent programming, entire families can benefit from listening. Parents don't have to worry about their child hearing obscene suggestions on the radio, and don't have to worry about their child being influenced by "evil" music, such as heavy metal. Some heavy metal and other songs on other stations communicate that murdering someone and committing other crimes are OK according to the lyrics in the songs.

3. We need to have a station such as K-LOVE on the air that has music that promotes good values such as forgiving people, having faith, loving your enemies, etc. (there are songs like that on K-LOVE). There are never songs on K-LOVE that promote murder or crime like there are on other radio stations. Denver, Colorado will be a better place with this station available and Denver will be a worse place to live if this station is taken off the air. I truly believe this will all my heart!

Thanks for taking the time to read this comment, and, after hearing my heart, I believe you will do your best to find a way to keep K-LOVE on the air.

Thanks Again! --Susan Barker
